Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate.
11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy.
11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101(13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. §506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

Description of Incident
On March 12 2018 around 9pm, we lost power to our neighborhood. The room lights got dim and then insanely bright and then bounced between dim and blinding for between 30seconds to a minute. I was doing work on my laptop when I heard a POP from it, and a sizzle from my desk PC and smelled smoke. 1/2hr later power came back, bouncing too bright for 30seconds again. Apple would repair the MacbookPro for $566.50, but not the customizing & M500 SSD. The custom desktop gets stuck booting and nobody can fix it and I can't afford a replacement. It took 3 weeks to get an old computer working to start making apps again. (Thanks to the PGE employee who helped me finally fill out this form with costs).
PROPERTY DAMAGE: Attach repair estimates, invoices, proof of purchase, or supporting documents. (Do Not Send Originals).
FOOD SPOILAGE: Include a separate itemized list of each item of food spoiled and documentation of cost.
NOTE: Under California damages law you are entitled to reimbursement for the lesser of fair market value or the cost to repair your damaged property. We use the replacement cost of the item and depreciate that amount to arrive at the fair market value. You may consider consulting with your insurance carrier.

CLAIMS PROCESS

We understand you have sustained a loss and you believe PG&E may be responsible. If we prove to be responsible, we want to promptly and fairly compensate you. To evaluate your claim, we must determine how the incident happened, whether or not we caused it, and compensate you fairly under the law. Below are some frequently asked questions about submitting a claim to Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

WHAT IS THE CLAIMS POLICY AND PROCESS? It is PG&E's policy to respond to claims promptly and fairly. We evaluate each claim based on the information you provide and our investigation. The time to investigate your claim will depend on the information you provide and the complexity of the incident. Our goal is to reach a decision on your claim within 30 days of its receipt. However, if there are complex issues involved, or if we need additional information, the process may take longer.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE FOR DAMAGES? Generally speaking, PG&E is responsible for damages that result from its negligence. If any person, business or property is damaged because PG&E does something unreasonable, or because we unreasonably fail to do something that should have been done, then we are obligated to reimburse reasonable damages. We are not responsible for damages that we do not cause or that are the result of forces beyond our control. For example, in most instances we are not responsible for power outages or voltage fluctuations caused by earthquakes, weather conditions (such as lightning, floods, heavy storms, extreme heat or winds) curtailments or outages initiated at the direction of any electric grid operator or due to a failure of gas supplies not caused by us. There may be situations in which PG&E is only partially responsible for a loss. In those cases we will offer to pay our fair share.

WHAT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY? You have a duty to mitigate your damages, which means that you have to minimize the loss, and to make sure that losses or expenses incurred because of an incident are not accumulating needlessly and that they are reasonable in relation to the loss.

WHAT DO YOU NEED TO PROVIDE? You should retain copies of all receipts so you can provide full and accurate documentation of your losses or damages. You can help us expedite your claim by completing the claim form as thoroughly as possible, and by enclosing appropriate photographs and supporting documentation. Below are general examples.

Property Damage	Personal Injury*	Lost Wages	Business Losses	Miscellaneous Losses	Food Spoilage
Detailed repair estimates	Date of Birth	Amount of time off	Tax records	Hotel receipts	Itemized purchase receipts
Detailed repair invoices	Gender	Employer's verification	Bank statements	Restaurant receipts	Itemized list of cost and type of food
Purchase receipts	Treatment bills	Payroll stubs	Payroll records	Car rental receipts	List to identify if items were frozen or refrigerated
Appraisals	*Treatment records		Revenue statements		Photographs
Photographs	Prescription receipts		Expense statements
Rental receipts			Sales Receipts

*For personal injury losses, be prepared to provide your Social Security Number and to approve PG&E's request for records from your medical provider(s).

Food spoilage claims are evaluated based on the recommended guidelines from the US Department of Agriculture:

1. A fully stocked freezer will usually keep food frozen for 2 days after losing power, if the door remains closed.
2. A half-full freezer will usually keep food frozen about 1 day, if the door remains closed.
3. Food will usually stay cold in the refrigerator up to 4 hours, if the door remains closed.

WHAT ARE YOUR CLAIM OPTIONS? You may wish to refer your claim to your insurance company, which may be able to reimburse you without an investigation and, depending on your coverage, may pay replacement values for damaged items. Your insurance company will seek reimbursement from PG&E.

WHAT IF YOUR CLAIM IS DENIED? If your claim is denied, we will send a letter explaining the reason. It may be because of a gas or electric rule that applies to your situation. These rules are on file with the California Public Utilities Commission (CPUC). They have the same effect as other laws. If you are not satisfied with our decision and explanation, you have the right to file a court action, including a small claims action. The small claims court hears matters not exceeding $7,500. The small claims process does not involve attorneys.

IS THERE A TIME LIMIT ON FILING A CLAIM OR A COURT ACTION? It is always best to submit a claim as soon as possible. PG&E is guided by claims experience and applicable time limits for filing legal actions, if the claim is denied. Our experience indicates that food spoilage and similar claims should be made promptly, and, therefore, such claims will only be paid if they are submitted and resolved within one year from the date of the incident. If you wish to file a court action, there are various time limits set by California law. Generally, these are: personal injury, 2 years from the date of the injury; personal inconvenience (such as a meal out), 1 year; business interruption or economic loss with no property damage, 2 years; tangible property damage, 3 years. If you have questions regarding these limits, you should consult an attorney.

WHAT IS THE ROLE OF THE CALIFORNIA PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION (CPUC)? The CPUC sets general rules relating to claims process, but it does not rule on the underlying merits of a claim. If you have a billing dispute that you are unable to resolve with PG&E personnel, the appropriate remedy is to file a complaint with the CPUC. For further information about the role of the CPUC, you can call 800-649-7570 or visit its website at www.cpuc.ca.gov.
